ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Introduction and Historical Background North Ossetian State Medical Academy (NOSMA) is one of the oldest and most established government medical institutions in the Russian Federation. Founded in 1939, the university has operated for over 85 years, evolving from a regional medical institute into a major center for pharmaceutical and general medical education. Located in Vladikavkaz, the capital city of the North Ossetia-Alania Republic, the academy sits approximately 1,750 kilometers south of Moscow, positioned near the Russia-Georgia border. The city of Vladikavkaz offers a unique cultural environment, featuring the historic Mukhtarov Mosque constructed in 1906, which attracts tourists and provides international students with exposure to...
